

Assembly Expectations

Tisdale Elementary
School

Why are assemblies an important part of T.E.S.?

- To celebrate together as a whole school
- In share information with students
- To celebrate special occasions and holidays
- To show school spirit
- To entertain others (students and families)
- To show support for one another and to special causes (i.e. Terry Fox)

Why is it important for me to follow assembly rules and expectations?

- To show respect and responsibility for myself, others, and to the school
- To allow others to be heard
- To be respectful to those who are presenting and to those who are trying to listen
- To set a good example for others
- To demonstrate school pride

On my way to the gym, I will remember to:

- Line up quietly where my teacher tells me
- Keep my hands and feet to myself (do not touch work on walls)
- Give the people in front and behind me their own personal space
- Walk down the hallway, being careful not to bump into anyone
- Keep my eyes looking forward
- Use my inside, quiet voice
- Stay in line and sit in the gym where my teacher has put me

When I am at an assembly, I need to remember to:

- Listen to the speaker(s)
- Pay attention
- Sit flat on the floor so others can see
- Wait patiently
- Don't bother others
- Show support by clapping respectfully
- Be attentive by sitting still and listening
- Cooperate

How can I show support to the presenter?

- Listen
- Don't talk to others around you
- Sit still
- Clap respectfully when it is appropriate
- Cheer for everyone
- Do not 'boo' others
- Give everyone equal support
- Be ready to listen without the speaker having to raise his/her voice
