

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is not only the theft of someone else's work but also the offense of presenting that person's ideas or expressions as if they were your own. It is academic dishonesty of the most serious and fraudulent kind and hence totally unacceptable and offenders will be subject to discipline measures under the Education Act – 1995.