

Searches

School authorities are authorized to conduct searches of students or their property including school lockers when reasonable suspicion indicates that a particular student is in possession of an item or substance that represents a material threat to school routine, or is prohibited by School Board regulations or by law.